Annual Taxation Update Conference 2004

The Annual Taxation Update Conference was held successfully on 19 June 2004, drawing an attendance of over 1,000 delegates.

Chaired by Elizabeth Law, partner at Stephen Law & Co, the conference was presented by Debbie Annells, director at Equity Trust Group, Mike Grover, tax partner at Ernst & Young and Paul MP Chan, managing partner at Paul Chan & Partners. It reviewed a number of major developments in taxation law and practice in Hong Kong as well as the recent decisions of the courts and the Board of Review.

CFO Forum

Supported by the Hong Kong Society of Accountants, the annual CFO Forum, organised for its eighth consecutive year by Business Week, was held successfully on 29 June. Entitled, ‘Financing the Future, Leading Change, Leveraging Growth’, the forum provided an opportunity for CFOs to share their views on strategic imperatives required to leverage on the economic recovery.

Pirates in the Middle Kingdom: The Art of Trademark War

Tan, Loke Khoon

Table of contents
- Chinese Language Marks
- Well-known Trademarks
- Administrative and Enforcement Frameworks
- Trademark Registration
- Trademark Oppositions
- Trademark Cancellations
- Trademark Licensing and Assignment
- Trademark Infringement
- Enforcement of Trademark Rights
- Civil Litigation
- Domain Names and the Internet
- Other Intellectual Property Rights and Related Areas of Law

To order, please call our Customer Service Hotline at 2863 2668 or www.sweetandmaxwellasia.com

August 2004
Hardback, 300pp
ISBN 962 661 233 9
HK$900/US$115*
The art of trademark war. This edition published in 2004 by Sweet & Maxwell Asia, West Group in Hong Kong, St. Paul, Minn. Edition Notes. Includes bibliographical references and index. "Table of cases": p. [xxvii]-xxviii. "Table of legislation": p. [xxix]-xxxviii. The Physical Object. This was always a difficult matter, because the king's advisers became and those not chosen lost influence and wealth. Some of Richard's strongest critics had been the most men in the kingdom. King Richard II was young and very He his uncle, John of Gaunt, who was the noble of his time. In English-speaking popular culture, the modern pirate stereotype owes its attributes mostly to the imagined tradition of the 18th century Caribbean pirate sailing off the Spanish Main and to such celebrated 20th century depictions as Captain Hook and his crew in the theatrical and film versions of J. M. Barrie's children's book Peter Pan, Robert Newton's portrayal of Long John Silver in the 1950 film adaptation of the Robert Louis Stevenson's novel Treasure Island, and various adaptations of the The second edition of Pirates in the Middle Kingdom provides a comprehensive analysis of China's developing trademark laws. Coverage includes: - Chinese language marks - Well-known trademarks - Administrative and enforcement frameworks - Trademark registration - Trademark oppositions - Trademark cancellations - Trademark licensing and assignment - Trademark infringement - Trademark Counterfeiting - Enforcement of trademark rights - Civil litigation - Domain names and the Internet - Other intellectual property rights and related areas of law ...more. The War Against Piracy was an act attempted and carried out by Lord Cutler Beckett and the East India Trading Company, aided by the British Royal Navy, to wipe out piracy from the world. The Company's purpose for the war was to expand their business into the Caribbean as well as exterminating pirates. Beckett was able to achieve this plan by finding the fabled Dead Man's Chest, in which lied the heart of Davy Jones, to control the seas.