"Education for Victory:" Pre-Induction Training at Austin High School

Whitney Blankenship
University of Texas at Austin

Abstract

In the months after the bombing of Pearl Harbor, the United States began the difficult task of mobilizing the nation for war. Every facet of American life would be touched as the country threw all of her resources into the war effort. American schools were no different from any other sector of the U.S. Home Front.

Author Biography

Whitney Blankenship, University of Texas at Austin
Ms. Blankenship is a currently a doctoral candidate within the department of Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Texas at Austin.

Published
2010-01-07
Education & Training is a multidisciplinary field that covers aspects of Psychology, Sociology, Anthropology, Political Science, Economics, Counselling - all forming the fundamentals on which your future teaching strategy will be built and implemented. You need to adapt this strategy to the needs of the students your work with. Depending on your specialisation, you might teach pre-schoolers, school children, adolescents or adults. They all learn differently, and you need to adapt your methods to your audience to be a successful teacher. During Teaching courses, you will learn how to keep a

Austin Independent School District is a school district based in the city of Austin, Texas, United States. Established in 1881, the district serves most of the City of Austin and surrounding towns, the City of Sunset Valley, the Village of San Leanna, and unincorporated areas in Travis County (including Manchaca). The district operates 129 schools including 84 elementary schools, 19 middle schools, and 17 high schools. As of 2013 AISD covers 172.4 square miles (447 km²) of land within the City of College Preparatory Education. With AP courses and dual-credit courses, individual college guidance and more, 99% of our graduates continue to higher education. Leadership in STEM. APA was selected for 2020 as a top STEM High School honoring excellence in science, technology, engineering and mathematics by Newsweek. Academics. Early Childhood. Prayer is an essential part of life at Austin Peace Academy, whether in assembly, or at all-school daily prayer in the mosque or Friday community prayer. A Day in the Life. Austin Peace Academy is more than a school – it’s a second home. See what a typical day might have in store for you. Student life. Student Leadership. Many training plans involve running four times a week for at (1) three months, and sometimes longer. Experts strongly recommend that you should (2) used to running long distances gradually. If you don’t, it can increase the chances (3) picking up an injury. 2. she always handed in her homework late, the quality of her work was high. 3. Simona took notes during the lecture recording what the teacher said. 4. Mike decided to get a summer job in France improve his French. The lower-order expectations of high-stakes tests: A four-state analysis of social studies standards and test alignment. SW DeWitt, N Patterson, W Blankenship, B Blevins, L DiCamillo, D Gerwin, Theory & Research in Social Education 41 (3), 382-427, 2013. Education for Victory: Pre-Induction Training at Austin High School. WG Blankenship. Curriculum History, 17-30, 2009.