Course Objectives:

- Examine organizational ethics from both a philosophical and professional perspective.
- Consider ethical reasoning, integrity, moral character, and moral decision making as essential foundations to the human relations professional
- Apply ethical frameworks for the determining “the right thing to do”
- Use a case analysis approach to resolve ethical problems, issues, and dilemmas.

Assignments, Grading, and Due Dates:

This course has 4 written assignments. All assignments are due no later than December 31st at their corresponding Canvas dropbox location.

Assignment 1: Ethics: Professional Ways of Acting (3 pages minimum, excluding title page and reference page)

Fully discuss the following information (1-10). Use supporting references (including your textbook and at least 2 other scholarly, peer-reviewed sources. Websites are not acceptable) to enhance and develop your thoughts. Give specific examples to help develop your discussion. Do not number your paper. Instead, each numbered component will represent a paragraph. Note: I must be able to discern that you are discussing each component.

1. Give your personal definition of morals, character, and integrity. What links these concepts together in terms of professional conduct?
2. Why is ethics important for public service organizations?
3. What makes an issue ethical or unethical?
4. Who decides what is ethical and why?
5. Is it possible to achieve ethics and integrity in managing and governing public institutions or should we strive for ‘good enough governance’, as many crucial public values seem contradictory or even conflicting? Support your response.
6. Describe effective strategies to create and nurture ethical organizations.
7. What works better and in what situations: enforcing compliance, building trust, or promoting values?
8. Explain some general but compelling reasons why human beings find it so difficult to act ethically (a) in their personal lives and (b) in their professional lives.
9. Explain the progression from being an ethical person to being an ethical leader?
10. Think about your personal values and beliefs and prepare a personalized statement that describes your philosophy for applying values in your personal and professional life.

Organization of your paper:
- Title Page
- Discussion of 1-10 (by separate paragraphs)
- Reference Page

Codes of ethics are principles designed to guide the actions of individuals and serve to guide behaviors in the workplace. In this assignment you will critique a code of ethics then develop/create a code of ethics. The paper should be written in essay (discussion) type format and should be organized as Part I and Part II. Provide an introduction paragraph to introduce and preview your discussion.

I. Review the contents of the American Society for Public Administration’s (ASPA) Code of Ethics. Critique (discuss) the ASPA’s code of ethics according to Lawton, Rayner, & Lasthuizen’s framework of ethical regulation. [Link to code]

II. Discuss the need and relevance of a code of ethics for Human relations professionals. Use content from Chapter 6: Compliance Approaches of the Lawton, Rayner, & Lasthuizen text to support your discussion. In addition, locate at least (3) additional peer-reviewed scholarly perspectives to support your discussion. Cite the authors as appropriate. Next, write a code of ethics for Human Relations professionals. Keep in mind that Human Relations professionals take on roles and titles that may not explicitly include the words “human relations.” The goal here is to stimulate your critical thinking towards the overall purpose and essence of human relations. Therefore the code of ethics you create can be generalized across multiple professions where human relations type work is performed. Your code of ethics should contain three parts: core values statement; core values translated into behavioral norms; sanctions for violating these values and norms.

Organization of your paper: (Use subheadings to identify sections being discussed)
- Title Page
- Introductory paragraph (gives purpose of paper and previews the contents)
- Part I discussion
- Part II discussion
- Conclusion (summarizes the paper and brings closure)
- Reference Page

Assignment 3: Ethical Dilemmas: Case Scenario (Minimum 3 pages excluding title page and reference page).

In this assignment you are to develop the following discussion points:

Part I.
- Explain an ethical dilemma and what creates an ethical dilemma (use 2 scholarly peer-reviewed sources in addition to your textbook);
- Explain how an integrity approach can be used in resolving an ethical dilemma (use a reference to support and justify your response);
Part II.

Analyze “The Holiday Dilemma” (Exercise 7.2, page 129) by responding to discussion questions at the end of the exercise. Use references support and justify your response to each question.

Organization of your paper (Use subheadings to organize the discussion):

- Title page
- Introductory paragraph (gives purpose of paper and previews contents)
- Part I discussion (each of the discussion points begins a new paragraph)
- Part II discussion (each discussion question represents a paragraph)
- Concluding paragraph (summarizes the paper and brings closure)
- Reference Page

Assignment 4: Discussion Paper: Expanding the Perspectives of Ethics and Management (Minimum 5 pages, excluding title page and reference page).

The following are selected key points addressed in Ethics and Management in the Public Sector by Lawton, Rayner, and Lasthuizen (2013). Fully explain how the authors developed these points. In your discussion, for each numbered key points (1-12), locate another peer-reviewed scholarly perspective that provides another perspective beyond your textbook authors. Do not number your paper. This is a discussion formatted paper using APA formatting guidelines. Each of the discussion points 1-12 will represent a separate paragraph. Remember that each paragraph needs to contain a citation by Lawton, Rayner, and Lasthuizen (2013) and a reference from another scholarly source. Failure to use supporting citations as described will result in a grade of U for this assignment. You may cite references in more than one paragraph if the citation is applicable.

1. Discuss ethics as a foundational and integral component of the public sector.
2. Discuss basic ethical theories and give practical examples of how they can be applied in public sector organizations.
3. Explain how the application of ethics extends beyond resolving dilemmas.
4. Explain how organizational constraints can dictate ethical decisions in public service organizations and provide examples.
5. Discuss the concept of organizational ethics and how this concept brings together individual, organizational and societal interpretations of ethics that sometimes compete with each other.
6. Explain why public interest is continually in tension with notions of citizenship, competing with notions of the role of the State, and localized interests.
7. Discuss the notion of managing culture as being problematic.
8. Explain how ethical issues in public service organizations are a mixture of individual motivations, organizational imperatives and societal values.
9. Explain how trends in ethical frameworks have moved from relying on personal integrity to compliance systems of control.
10. Explain the following: Ethical leadership is a multi-dimensional concept – distinct from other leadership styles consisting of the components ‘the moral person’, ‘the moral manager’ and a ‘positive leader–follower relationship’.
11. Discuss cognitive moral development theory, social learning theory, reinforcement theory and social exchange theory in relation to leaders’ ethics and integrity.
12. Explain how building a reputation as an ethical leader should be equally balanced between being a moral person and being a moral manager.

Organization of your paper:

- Title Page
- Introduction paragraph
- Discussion of 1-12 (Each discussion point should begin a new paragraph)
- Concluding paragraph (summarizes paper and brings closure)
- Reference Page
General Document Preparation:

Each assignment provides a guideline for organization. Note that assignments 2-4 begin with an introduction. The introduction provides a purpose statement for the paper. You should begin ALL papers with the purpose statement (EX: The purpose of this paper is to…….). The introduction also serves to preview the discussion. The concluding paragraph returns to the purpose, briefly summarizes, and brings closure. An APA formatted title page and reference page should be included. All sources used should be properly referenced. References should be peer-reviewed, scholarly sources. Websites are not considered peer-reviewed, scholarly sources and are therefore not acceptable for this course. A recommended website for APA style guidelines is: https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/

All papers should be typed in Times New Roman 12pt font. Pages should be double-spaced, using APA 6th edition formatting and guidelines. If you are unsure of any of the instructions to complete assignments, please do not hesitate to contact me. The most effective way to communicate with me is by email as I check my email several times during the day. You should therefore expect a timely response.

Grading:

This course is graded Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory (S/U). A grade of S is equivalent to B or better. In numeric terms, this means that each of the 4 assignments carries a weight of 25%.

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

Incomplete Grade Policy:

A grade of “I” is not automatically assigned, but rather must be requested by the student by submitting to the instructor a “Petition for and Work to Remove an Incomplete Grade” form. An “I” can never be used in lieu of an “F” nor can an “I” be assigned because of excessive failure to participate in class activities.

Technical Support Information:

If you experience technical problems, contact Information Technology by visiting their website at: http://webapps.ou.edu/it/ or contacting them by telephone at: (405) 325-HELP (4357).
POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Note: Attendance/absences do not apply to online courses. However, participation in all course activities is extremely important to student success in online courses.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html.
