2MS518 MISSIONS

PROFESSOR: Dr. Medeiros

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

This course introduces the student to four key “missiological” motivations as they relate to the Christian ministry: pastoral, biblical/theological, historical, and practical (strategy). Our goal is to learn in order to reach. The question to keep in mind is this: What does it have to do with God’s glory, the edification (building up) of the church, and the salvation of the unconverted across the street and around the world? These “lectures” and activities have been designed to be reproduced in the context of the local churches.

FORMAT

“Lectures,” guest lecturers, small group interactions, seminars, video presentations, and discussions.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance—“Classroom attendance is for the glory of God and preparation for the gospel ministry. Students therefore are expected to attend class sessions. No student should absent himself from classes in order to fulfill requirements or responsibilities of other classes....” (RTS Catalogue).

Three reading reports—The careful reading of the assigned materials and three reading reports (two pages each per book), single space, highlighting the main propositions, statements, theses, principles, etc, gathered from the reading. Due on August.

Participation in the classroom activities (“mission” reports/prayer, and presentations).

The first 20 minutes of the first class of each day will be dedicated to “mission reports” and prayer. Read Genesis 18:16-25, 32-33; Isaiah 56:7; Mark 11:17; 1 Timothy 2:1-6.

Small Group discussions and facilitators. Choose a Facilitator to represent your group.

A “lecture” presentation in a small group setting (Sunday School, for instance) about the life and ministry of a protestant evangelical “missionary,” highlighting God’s work through him and his family (wife and children), as well as his theology and strategy. Read Hebrews 11:39-12:2; 13:7.

Interview a non-Christian and write one page report about your experience. Due on August.

Features of Magpul Industries MS4 Dual QD - Multi-Mission Sling GEN 2, Black MAG518-BLK: Heavy-duty push-button Quick Disconnect Sling Swivels for both one and two-point attachment. Compatible with buttstocks, end plates, receivers, and hand guards that have a push-button QD socket. Durable, precision-cast steel QD D-Ring allows for quick transition from one to two-point mode and is finished with Melonite for extreme resistance to wear and corrosion. Custom 1.25 inch wide nylon webbing material is strong and wear resistant while remaining anti-chaff for user comfort. Low-profile adjustment Sling The MS4 maintains material construction and specifications identical to that of the standard MS3, but features two heavy-duty push-button QD sling swivels rather than the Magpul Paraclip® aligning with a steel D-Ring to allow one to two-point convertibility. This modification allows compatibility with QD sling cups commonly found on lower receivers, receiver end plates, buttstocks, and many low-profile forward QD Sling mounts, including the Magpul RSA-QD. Mobile Suit Gundam: The 08th MS Team - Miller's Report is a movie that ties into the events of Mobile Suit Gundam: The 08th MS Team. The movie centers around the court martial of Shiro Amada and investigation into allegations of a Zeon spy being in the ranks of the 08th MS Team. The investigation into the allegations is carried out by Alice Miller. Following an attempt to capture (or destroy) a new Zeon mobile armor, the incidents involving Shiro Amada of the 08th MS Team were called into question by
