I make things: puppets, videos and performances, which included the exhibition, Need to be Adored (2014), staged in the digital media lab of the Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts in Kingston, Ontario, Canada. The exhibition introduced thirteen of my puppets and a thirty-two-minute looped video. I want to be adored. He's already in me. I don't need to sell my soul. He's already in me. Etc. The D5 can be played as a D with an F# in the bass sounds pretty cool as well. Edit: Also, the chorus can be played as: GGEm I want to be adored. Just so it would be a bit different then the verses when you play it alone. X.

God does not need to be adored. He is not insecure. All is Himself. The Infinite potential. Creation is a play of His own mysterious form. It is us, who needs to learn how to love Him. Love is an infinite flow. But we channel it to finite sources and people. God does not need to be adored. God is... everything and needs nothing from us. Sadly man has created the rules and laws which so many believe God handed down to Moses. Commitments is the proper word, not commandments. Why does God need us to do what God wants. The whole idea of God wanting us to be more Godlike is true i think. It is our free will not God's that has wreaked havoc on the world.
