Print and Teach kids and need grammar games to help you create effective lesson plans?... Well, younger kids learning English as a second language are even harder to teach grammar concepts than high school students, I’d say. I usually teach a lot of teenagers and adults, but this semester I have a few kids who light up my day with their energy! The other day, I realized that sometimes teaching them is similar to teaching a class of absolute beginners, which I’ve done a few times here in Spain.
